

Corporate Membership »

When you become a corporate member of Washington Trails Association, you make an investment in the protection and maintenance of Washington's hiking trails today and for generations to come. Your membership supports the Northwest's quality of life and the well-being of our economy, too: active recreation is a $12 billion industry in our state. By joining WTA, you become part of a community of nearly 500,000 hikers and outdoor enthusiasts who share a love for trails and wildlands. As a corporate member of WTA, you will gain high-profile recognition for your commitment to protecting trails and getting people outdoors.

About Washington Trails Association

WTA is the leading voice for hikers in Washington, representing 7,600 loyal members.

WTA protects trails and wildlands where we live, work, and play—from the Cascade foothills to our national parks.

WTA has one of the largest volunteer trail maintenance programs in the country, with 2,000 volunteers giving back more than 80,000 hours to trails each year.

WTA is the go-to resource for hikers, backpackers, and outdoor enthusiasts looking for trail conditions, hiking tips, and more:

WTA's website, www.wta.org, receives 410,000 visitors annually;

Every bi-monthly issue of Washington Trails magazine reaches 15,000 hikers and outdoor enthusiasts;

Trail News, WTA's e-newsletter, reaches 9,000 hikers and outdoor enthusiasts each month; and WTA's annual TrailsFest event attracts 3,000 outdoor enthusiasts.

WTA has been awarded the highest 4-star rating for efficiency by Charity Navigator, a leading charity evaluator, for 3 years in a row.
