

Trip Report Mad Libs

It was the first day of hiking season. _____ and a group of friends jumped (name)
in their _____ and headed off to _____.
(vehicle) (location)

After _____ hours, they arrived at the trailhead. The weather overhead (number)
was _____ and the hikers were feeling _____ as they started out on (adjective) (emotion)
trail.

They knew it was going to be a _____ day when they stumbled upon a(n)
(adjective)
_____ in the middle of their path. Thank goodness they came prepared (noun)
with a _____ in their pack. After getting past the initial _____, the (noun) (feeling)
group continued onward.

Around noon, _____ pulled a _____ out of their pack and yelled,
(name) (noun)
"lunchtime!" to the group. The group decided to stop by a nearby _____ (noun)
and eat.

After lunch, they started back. " _____!" shouted _____ as they pointed (exclamation) (name) to a _____ that had just _____ on the trail. The group _____ all the (type of animal) (past tense verb) (past tense verb)
way back to the trailhead wishing they had packed along a _____.
(noun)

As they piled back into the _____, the group let out a collective sigh of (same vehicle)
_____. What a great hiking trip, they thought, already looking forward to (emotion)
next week's hike at _____!
(trail)

